

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Susan Iadarola
Dana Rader Golf School
704.542.7635
siadarola@danarader.com

DANA RADER AMONG “50 MOST INFLUENTIAL WOMEN” FOR 2012

Charlotte, NC (April 3, 2012) – Dana Rader, Founder and Owner at Dana Rader Golf School, has been selected as one of The Mecklenburg Times “50 Most Influential Women” for 2012. She joins an elite group whose achievements in both their business and community efforts are exemplary.

Created to spotlight the most influential women in business, government, education and the non-profit fields, Charlotte’s fourth class of the 50 Influential Women will be honored on the evening of May 4, 2012 at the Marriott Center City in Uptown. The Charlotte Woman of the Year will be selected from the 50 and announced at the awards presentation. The selection process is determined by an independent group of Charlotte business leaders.

About Dana Rader Golf School

Dana Rader Golf School is North Carolina’s most complete state-of-the-art teaching and practice facility. Selected to Golf Magazine’s prestigious list of Top 25 Golf Schools in America and #1 in North Carolina, Dana Rader Golf School specializes in quality golf schools and lessons for players of all ages and skill levels. Dana Rader Golf School’s full staff of award-winning PGA and LPGA certified professionals offers extensive programs and highly personalized instruction for men, women, juniors and corporate events.

The School’s Founder, Dana Rader, is a nationally recognized leader in the golf industry named by Golf Digest as one of America’s 50 Greatest Teachers, is consistently ranked as a Golf Magazine Top 100 Instructor and currently serves as LPGA Teaching and Club Professional National President. She has been honored as LPGA National Teacher of the Year and has achieved LPGA Master Professional status. For more information about Dana Rader Golf School, call 704.542.7635 or visit www.danarader.com.

About The Mecklenburg Times

The Mecklenburg Times newspaper has been covering Metro Charlotte since 1923. As part of the Dolan Media Company, The Mecklenburg Times is part of an award-winning group of more than 40 publications in 21 markets throughout the U.S. News reports highlight issues affecting the business climate of the region, from the moves of big corporations and the potential of start-up companies, to the economic impact of government regulation and investment in infrastructure. As the region’s leading publisher of legal records and public notices, they also offer listings for new business filings, bankruptcies, foreclosures and real estate transactions. More information and news is available at www.mecktimes.com.

###